INFORMAL DINNER—An informal dinner will be given by the Arizona Good Roads association Friday evening, April 25, at 7:30 o'clock. The directors of the association have been invited to be present and a very interesting and instructive session is anticipated by the officers.

OSBORN SCHOOL LECTURE—Dr. Janet Reed, social hygiene expert, will lecture to mothers of the Osborn district at 2 o'clock this afternoon. There will also be a short meeting of the district Parent-Teacher association for the purpose of electing officers for the next year, followed by the lecture and a musical program.

ANOTHER EASTER CONCERT—A large and pleased audience heard the Easter music rendered at the Congregational parish house last Sunday night, and the choir and those who assisted it has consented to repeat the concert next Sunday night at 8 o'clock for the benefit of those who did not hear it last Sunday and those who wish to hear it again.

BACK ON CIVILIAN JOB—After several months' service overseas, Virgil King has returned home and will shortly resume his duties in the office of county recorder, a position which he held under Recorder Vaughn and which place has been kept for him by Edith Jacobs, the present recorder. King was seriously ill before returning to the side and spent weeks in hospitals in France and England.

A CORRECTION—Mr. Steffan, father of the little girl injured at Country club last Sunday, desires the correction of a statement that has been made that she was hurt while trying to seize one of the ponies of the merry-go-round while it was in motion. The father says, and that was as it appeared to bystanders, that the little girl was pushed against the cable by the eager throng of little ones behind who, like her, were holding tickets for the next excursion of the ponies.

JOBS FOR SERVICE MEN—The War Veterans' association has a number of open positions for experienced underground men for work in the mines of this state. Both miners and muckers are wanted. All ex-service men without jobs are urged to register at the association's headquarters in the War Work building, where positions are open for them. It is stated that conditions at the mines are good and the wages will be $4.50 per day.

LEAVE AFTER LONG VISIT—Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Stern of Anderson, Indiana, who have been visiting Mrs. Harry Haugh of 350 North First avenue for the past few weeks, departed last evening for a visit of several months in California before returning to their home. They were delighted with the splendid climate and the conditions in Phoenix and made the statement that this valley was far ahead of the famed resorts of Florida, where they spent several weeks before coming to this city.

TO OPEN ROAD BIDS—Bids will be opened May 5, by E. E. Wheeler, senior highway engineer, office of public roads, Luna-Strickler Bldg., Albuquerque, New Mexico, on the Apache Soldier Project involving 7 1/2 miles of construction, 6,000 yards of rock and 28,000 yards of common excavation.

BACK FROM EXTENDED TOUR—J. A. Sines, Ed S. Luther, Jr., and John T. Creech returned to the city yesterday from an extended tour of Southern California and Northern Arizona. Mr. Sines reports that the roads in the northern part of the state are in fair condition and the road from Prescott to Cordus in good shape. The highway from Canyon toward Phoenix, however, was in bad condition and much time was lost on that portion of the trip. On the journey here yesterday a rattlesnake, with eleven rattles, was killed by the travelers. The trip from Prescott to Phoenix was made in nine hours.

HUSBAND ARRESTED—Henry A. Brown, an employee of the state road camp, was taken into custody yesterday on the charge of failure to provide for his wife and minor child. Mrs. Brown, who swore to the complaint, was in need, she declared and had the appearance of a woman who had known want. When Brown was taken into custody, he had $5 on his person. The defendant has only been employed at the road camp a few days, having gone to work for the state on Saturday. He will be given a preliminary hearing before Justice De Souza at 2 o'clock this afternoon and is now in jail having been unable to furnish bail in the required amount of $500.

REV. WOO IS OLDEST OF CHINESE IN RED CROSS

Rev. H. N. Woo has the honor of being the oldest living Chinese member of the American Red Cross.

Rev. Woo, of Shanghai, who is now 84 years old, was educated in the United States and fought as a private in the civil war on the northern side. His experience as a soldier gained Mr. Woo his first appreciation of Red Cross work. When the Shanghai Chapter was organized Mr. Woo took out a life membership, stating that it was one of the happiest moments of his life to thus become actively associated in American Red Cross work in China.

Mr. Woo is still hale and hearty and preaches in a native church in Shanghai every Sunday.

LOCAL ROAD BULLETIN GETS OUTSIDE PRAISE

The highway bulletin, which is located opposite the postoffice in this city, to direct the visiting traveler on his journey across the country, received very favorable mention and was illustrated in the April issue of "The American City," a magazine published in New York in the interest of municipal improvements.

A copy of the magazine and a letter was received yesterday by the chamber of commerce. The latter contained much praise of the progressiveness of the city of Phoenix and the thoughtfulness of the local chamber of commerce in placing this guide in a prominent place for the benefit of the traveler. The article in the magazine urges other cities throughout the land to follow the example of Phoenix and place a map and guide at the disposal of the public.

The Theater

Matinee at Elks Today

If you wish to find the most refreshingly cool spot in Phoenix today, go to the Elks theater to the usual mid-week matinee, to be given by the Elks. Lawrence Co. Not only is the theater the coolest in town, but the play, "Peggy From Killarney," the best offering of the Lawrence's thus far, is the most effective, exhilarating comedy one could imagine, carried with it an atmosphere which seems to come direct from the famous lakes of Killarney, whence the play gets its name.

Miss Vilma Steck, as the vivacious Peggy, with her buoyant personality and captivating manner is scoring the hit of her only too short career in Phoenix. Miss Ida Mae Golze, the young high school girl, was a delight to her many school friends who were on hand Monday night to welcome her first appearance. Mr. Lawrence looks and acts the role of the up-date American, aviator to the manner born. All the members of the company have roles that seem to fit them as if made to order. A pleasing feature of this week's program are the sweet old Irish numbers played by the Elks orchestra between acts.

Only one more week after this remains of the Lawrence company's season's engagement. The play selected for the farewell week will be the same the Lawrence has selected for the opening in San Francisco on May 12. The hilarious comedy "Don't Lie To Your Wife," one of New York's very latest comedy hits.

"Over the Garden Wall" is a hit. "Over the Garden Wall" is the second attraction staged by the Ed. Redmond Follies at the "American theater" eclipses even in popularity with the Redmond fans the first attraction, for it is one of the breeziest musical plays that has been staged in this city for many moons.

Lifting melodies, crisp comedy situations, bright lines and a veritable riot of color in lighting, costuming and scenery stamp the attraction as a real Broadway hit given in premiere as a stock attraction by the Redmonds in a highly creditable manner. Unlike most musical comedy attractions "Over the Garden Wall," has a plot and a well founded one, the action centering about the trials and tribulations of a double pair of newly-weds.

The principal song features of "Over

"Over the Garden Wall" will hold the boards throughout the week with matinee on Thursday, Saturday and Sunday.

Big Feature at the Columbia
If you liked Henry B. Walthall as the "Little Colonel" in "The Birth of a Nation," then you will be more than pleased with his work as Clay Randolph, a southern gentleman, in "And a Still Small Voice," feature photoplay being offered at the Columbia theater for the last times today. This is unquestionably the most lovable character of the program. A Big "V" comedy, "The Little Colonel," is also being offered.

The Pathe Review, showing slow action pictures of shapely bathing beauties as well as natural color scenes of France, is proving one of the sensations of the program. A Big "V" comedy, "And a Still Small Voice," is also being offered.

Starting Thursday, the Columbia feature offering will be Mrs. Charlie Chaplin (Mildred Harris) in "Borrowed Clothes." This is Mrs. Chaplin's first play since her marriage to the famous Charlie. This is a Lola Weber production and one of the biggest things she has ever directed. This super-feature will be shown at the Columbia Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Morley's Country Club

Tonight is the last night of the winter season and consequently the management of Morley's Country Club has determined to make it a memorable one. There will be a door prize of a $15 Japanese flower basket, spot dances, hundreds of free squawks, miles of serpentine, cabaret, songs and dances by the clever entertaining duo, the Nightingale Sisters, songs by Viola Bolser, saxophone selections of the jazz variety by Pearl Merrill.

The musicians and artists from Morley's volunteered in a body for any service the local committee on the Victory loan drive would assign them. Today they will be heard singing from a float on the principal street corners and soliciting subscriptions. It is unnecessary to say that Morley's is 100 per cent patriotic now and always.

The concrete plunging gets a steady patronage from early in the morning until evening. Several dozen new suits have been ordered and a notification just received that they could be expected any day. The free picture show is now being installed and will be an acceptable feature of the grand opening for the summer season Saturday night.
